

East Grand Forks Campbell Library

Patron Photography Policy

July 31, 2019

Attendance at programs and events sponsored by the EGF Campbell Library may be recorded through photographs and/or video. EGF Campbell Library frequently uses photos of patrons on its publications and display spaces to promote the value and use of library services and to advance the mission of this library.

If you do not wish your image to be published, please notify a member of the library staff before or immediately after the program. No individual identification will be used unless the library has a written photo release form.

If a library user finds an image of him/her or a family member that they would like removed from library publicity, they are encouraged to contact the library and it will be removed promptly.

Library patrons and visitors to EGF Campbell Library may not take photographs or videos of other patrons or staff without the permission of the person(s) being photographed.
